BOOSTERS ARE COMING

OUR CEARLESTON FRIENDS ARE EXPECTED TODAY.

They Will Be Given a Rousing "Yelcome and Entertained During Their Short Stay.

Chamber of Commerce left that city vote was as follows: on a special train on a week's tour of exploration and exploitation to many points in this State and North Carolins. Last night the excursionists made their last long stop at Columbia, and will reach this city today at 12:05 o'clock and remain until 12:55 o'clock, when they will depart on their homeward journey. During the fifty minutes that they will spend here, they will be entertained by the Orangeburg Chamber of Commerce

Since leaving Charleston on last Monday morning via the Atlantic Ebenezer . . 4 Coast Lite Railway to Florence, the Elloree . . 59 special train touched at nearly one hundred towns, on its long trip, and at each place, the fifty or so merchants aboard met their customers and friends, and distributed advertising matter.

The special is made up of a bag- Orangeburg. .191 gage ceach, a combination baggage Phillips. . . . 3 and day coach, three Pullmans and a Raymond. . . 13 diner. Each excursionist wore a special cap and a badge. The special was decorated with banners. A goodsized crowd saw the arrival in Orangeburg of the first trade excursion ever sent out of Charleston.

A band of twelve pieces, headed by Metz, is with the merchants, and at each stop made, their crack musical organization lead the marches, and play special music. It will likely play at the banquet tendered the Charleston delegation. The following is the personnel of the trade excursion party or firms Thesented: James Allan & Co., wholesale and retail jawelry, James Allan. Atlantic Brokerage Company, merchandise brokers, L. M. Jordan. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, W. E. Renneker, division

freight agent. Bailey-Lebby Company, machinery,

John L. Hacker. C. Bart & Co., wholesale fruit and produce, William Howard.

William M. Bird & Co., wholesale paints, oils, glass, A. H. French. Bureau of Freight, Immigration and Statistics, H. R. Jackson. Cameron Barkley Company, machinery, mill supplies, M. B. Barkley. Carolina Portland Cement Compa-

Carolina Rice Company, wholesale rice dealers, William G. Sheppard. T. VI. Carroll, wholesale fish and oysters, W. P. Hyams.

Charleston Consolidated Railway and Lighting Company, F. D. Mc-

Charleston Crockery Company, Paul W. Sanders.

Charleston Chamber of Commerce, A. W. McKeand, managing secretary. Charleston Fish and Oyster Company, wholesale and retail, W. P. J. T. Owens, Secy. Hyams.

Clyde Steamship Company, W. G. Pritchard.

Coe Mortimer Company, fertilizers, C. F. Mathew. Combahee Fertilizer Company, H.

J. Adams. Daggett Printing Company, William A. Fladger. Drake-Inness-Green Shoe Company, wholesale boots and shoes, B. F. McLeod and J. Williams. Evening Post, G. J. Jenkins.

Exchange Banking and Trust Company, W. K. McDowell. Follin Bros., wholesale and retail cigars, tobacco, etc., J. E. Follin. C. I. Franke & Co., machinery and mill supplies, E. J. Cappelmann. C. B. Hulet, merchandise brower.

T. T. Hyde, real estate. Marjenhoff Company, wholesale and retail baker, etc., O. G. W. Mar-jenhoif. Leland Moore, Paint and Oil Company, wholesale, Leland Moore. News and Courier, R. G. Brueschweiler and Ed D. Sallinger. Parknin's Imperial Baking Powder Company, Geo. H. Doscher. I'ecple's National Bank.

Phoenix Furniture Company, A W. Litschgi, Jr.

Planters' Fertilizer and Phosphate Company, F. D. Bell and H. R. Boy-

G. Rhodes & Son, furniture, McC. Maxwell. Sottile Bros., wholesale cigars and tobacco, James Sottile. Southeastern Lime and Cement Company, L. M. Jervey. Southern Commercial School, business college, C. L. Padgett. Southern Railway, J. A. Smith, Jr. division freight agent. Southern Fruit Company, whole-

A. R. Thomlinson, harness, etc.

F. W. Wagener & Co., wholesale grocers, William Fatman.

Walker, Evans & Cogswell Co., Young Men's Christian Association, R H. King. Col. P. H. Gadsden, president of law is liable to a fine of $500 or im- Jessie Baker. the Charleston Consolidated, was in prisonment of six months. the party until it reached Cheraw, when he had to return to Charleston on urgent business. Col. Gadsden is one of the biggest hearted men in prominent business men.

Cameron School Trustees. cation of Calhoun County, will order him by force if necessary. I never per cent on the insurance premiums an election to be held at Cameron on traveled such a bad road before." collected in those towns, will soon sociation will meet at St. Matthews the last before Easter, there will be Friday, the 28th instant for the pur- Mr. Brown, with his family, made receive the amounts paid by the in- today in regular session. President services each night through Thursday pose of electing five trustees for spec- a week-end trip in his Hudson tour- surance companies. Twenty-eight Mitchell of the South Carolina Uni- night, and on Good Friday morning. ial school district No. 14. Under a ing car to Orangeburg and back. recent act of the general assembly They went via Hogaboo swamp, find-dinances, and, according to reports be present, and will deliver an ad-land, and perhaps other visitors will the number of trustees for this dis- ing it almost impassable, and return- on file with the insurance commis- dress. A meeting of the County preach during the week. To these, trict was increased from three to five, ed by way of Bates ferry. "The ferry sioner, the total receipts are $10,768. School Improvement and Teachers and the services Easter Sunday, the

RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

Dibble Wins Over His Competitors by

Small Plurality. The election for Special Referee and Probate Judge passed off very quietly on Thursday. The vote polled cast in the primary elections. As will be seen by the returns published below Dibble won by a small plurali-Several members of the Charleston ty over Sturkie and Friday. The

Dibble. . . . . . . 585 Sturkie. . . . . . . 494 Friday . . . . . . . 345

With one precinct, Sawyerdale, which will cast about twenty-five votes, to be heard from. The following is the vote cast at each precinct:

Rowesville. . 13

Springfield. . 38

Stokes. . . . 11

Vances. . . . 13

Dibble Sturkie Friday Precinct Ayers. . . . . 18 Bowman. . . . 63 Branchville. . 9 20 Cedar Grove. 3 Cope. . . . . Dantzler. . . 33 Entawville. . 15 Holly Hill. . 27 Jamison. . . 13 Livingston. . 5 North.... Norway.. . . . 29

585 Dibble's plurality over Sturkie is 1, and over Friday 240, which shows that it was a close race.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS MEETING.

To Be Held at Ellores, S. C., on Thursday, April 20th.

10:30 A. M. --Public meeting at school auditori-

Prayer. Song.

Song.

Welcome, Opening Address. Response.

Address by prominent Pythians. Song. Benediction.

Picnic Dinner 3:30 P. M. Business session at Castle Hall, Elloree Lodge, No. 80, K. of P. 5:30 P. M.

Automobile ride 6:30 P. M. Reception at Elloree Central Ho-

All lodges in the district will please send list of names of delegates and visiting members who expect to attend to Col. B. A. Shuler, chairman Entertainment Committee.

The public is cordially invited to attend the public meeting and picnic dinner at school auditorium at 10:30 o'clock April 20th. Dinner in grove adjoining school property. Bring well-filled baskets. A. W. Browning Chrm.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE.

Methodist Church.

The Second Annual Sunday School Conference of the Orangeburg District of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in this city at St. Paul's Methodist church on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 18 and 19.

Among the speakers on the program for the conference are: J. M. Way, field secretary in this State; Revs. J. J. Stevenson, C. B. Smith, J. W. Arial, L. L. Bedenbaugh, W. J. Snider, S. D. Bailey, S. W. Danner, W. S. Goodwin, S. W. Henry, H. W. Bays and T. W. Godbold.

Among the laymen to speak will be: M. W. Brabham, & B. Guess, G. H. Bates, Dr. J. L. B. Gilmore, J. C. Price, O. B. Dukes, O. B. Riley and H. W. Black.

ence, who will be entertained in the keeper. homes of the citizens.

and come. The city will take pleasure in giving them the very best entertainment that she can. The meetings of the conference are public, and all are invited to attend them.

For Shad Tax Tag.

The first application for shad tax 1907 has been made to the county 22, 1911: treasurer's office. The law requires a tax of three and a half cents of President. every shad taken and sold from a sale fruit and produce, W. H. Mixson. navigable stream in this state. The Stokes Business College, A. L. requisition was made by a Eranchville man who desired to ship some shad and the express company at that point refused to accept the fish with- son. out the tag. Treasurer Fair at once made requisition on Chairman Rhett fluence in This Great Work?" by Mrs. stationers, printers, etc., T. W. Perry. of fisheles board at Beaufort and has been notified that the necessary tags have been sent. A violator of the Hogaboo in Bad Shape. "If you have a friend who contemplates a trip to St. Matthews or Charleston and one of her most Orangeburg," said Mr. F. L. Brown, of Columbia, to the Record Monday. 'and that friend contemplates going by way of Hogaboo swamp, in an au- eral towns in this State, which passed Mr. Murph, Superintendent of Edu- tomobile, don't let him do it. Detain ordinances, requiring the levy of one

DOINGS OF SOCIETY

SOCIAL EVENTS OF RECENT IN-TEREST JOTTED DOWN.

was very light, not over one-half that Expressly for The Times and Democrat by Its Special Society Re> ebrated his fourth birthday with a ley, Bamberg, Charleston, Colleton, friends were invited and a most pleasant afternoon was spent by the little folks. "Little Sally Walker," 'Drop Handkerchief" and other games of childhood were indulged in. Ice cream, cake and candy were served. Among those invited were: 19 Theodora, Rutledge and Elizabeth 2 Liles. Chesley and John Wise, Will Shecut Sease, Eusebia Doyle, Louise 11 Berghaus, Lou Alice and Lin Shecut, Jr., Mary Ellison Brantley, Chivalette Izlar, Frances Bettis Wolfe, Eliza-beth Bryant, T. B. Bryant, Jr., Jack 5 Bowman, U. G. Bryant, Jr., Pearle, 24 Beile and Gladys Bryant, Lydia and Louise Glover, Camilla Brailsford, Edward Paulling, Jr., Rachael and 131 "Billy" Doyle, Olin and Claire Dantzler, Foster Boone, Mildred and James 19 Oliver, Jr., and James Owen. . . .

Miss Smith of New York was honored Thursday morning with a bridge party at the home of Mrs. J. A. Berry. Two tables were arranged for the following ladies, Mrs. R. H. Jennings, Mesdames Fred and Harry Wannamaker, Duncan Jeffords, Sydney Oliveros, Adam Moss, J. A. Berry and Miss Smith. The prize, a fancy apron, was won by Mrs. Oliveros who presented it to the guest of honor. A hot luncheon was served.

place Wednesday evening. Mrs. Annie with Dr. Bays officiating Mr. Samuel Moss. Clifton and Miss Emma Godfrey were united in wedlock. All of these young people are well known and their many friends wish them happiness in their future lives.

As several Orangeburg boys are at Clemson College and members of the German Club the following invitation received in this city will be of interest. "The German Club of Clemson Agricultural College requests the honor of your presence at its Easter German, Friday evening, April the twenty-first, nineteen hundred and eleven, at eight o'clock.'

An unintentional error which appeared in this column in the last edition of this paper has probably been noticed by many. May the first was given as the day the local U. D. C. will celebrate Memorial Day. As is well known May the tenth is the day set aside by this state to honor dead heroes of "The Lost Cause."

the Winthrop Daughters at her home of whether or not he would reopen on Amelia street Friday afternoon. the case, he said that he would be guessing contest was held. Miss cided not to pardon. No steps have Of the Orangeburg District of the Marchant then served a delightful been taken to further the petition

G. L. Salley, W. L. Glaze, A. J. that Governor Blease will not now, Thackston, A. M. Salley, R. E. Copes, if ever, pardon John J. Jones. J. F. Rickenbaker and H. C Wannamaker.

The board of directors organized early date.

Program.

The following is the program of the quarterly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the second tag since the passage of the law in Swamp Baptist church Saturday, Apr.

> 10:30 a.m.—Devotional service by Reports from societies and enrollment of delegates.

> A paper on Home Missions by Miss Jessie Smith, discussed by Mrs. Fannie Compton and Mrs. W. H. Simp-

> "Are We as a Union Using Our In-Janie Tyler. 1:15 p. m .-- Social hour. 2:00 p. m.-Devotional by Mrs.

Reports from Y. W. A. Songs and recitations will be pected from Sunbeams.

Mrs. D. W. Hair, Committee.

We Get a Small Sum.

The fire departments in the sev

EDISTO DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Preparations Being Made for Entertainment by Local Chapter.

The Paul McMichael Chapter, U. D. C., held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday morning. Preparations are being made for the entertainment. of the Edisto District Conference, which will be held here on the 3rd of May. Delegates will come from the Friday afternoon, at the home on U. D. C. chapters in the following his parents, little "Billy" Bryant cel- counties: Calhoun, Barnwell, Berke-party. Quite a number of his young Dorchester, Hampton and Beaufort, and the members of the chapter at this place hope to make it a day of pleasure to the visitohs. A gavel of some historical interest was presented to the chapter by Mr. J. J. Fairey, a Confederate veteran. It is made from the wood of a tree which grew on land owned at one time by a soilder of the Revolution. In a few days a good program will be arranged for Memorial Day, May 10th. The following ladies were appointed to decorate the graves of soldiers in the cemeteries in this city on that day: Episcopal-Mesdames James Izlar, M. G. Salley, T. O. S. Dibble, F. A.

Schffley and A. Coward. Presbyterian-Mesdames J. A. Salley, M. Glover, D. D. Salley, J. A. Berry and J. C. Pike.

Baptist-Mesdames B. M. Foreman, W. G. Peterson, W. K. Sease, P. C. Brunson and P. T. Hildebrand. Hebrew-Mesdames H. Kohn, J. 1. Sorentrue, Bert Kahnweiler, John

Moseley and J. M. Oliver. J. H. Claffy, B, Mrs.. flwyyyrs GnM. Gocv Catholic-Mesdames Geo. Signeous, P. Doyle, J. H. Claffy, Frank Slater and Miss M. A. Butler.

Sunnyside-Mesdames Jerome Mc-Michael, J. L. Sims, Adeline Smoak, R. H. Jennings, H. C. Wannamaker, F. F. Malpass and Tom Fairey.

Confederate Monument-Miss Mar Confederate Monument-Miss Mary Two weddings of interest took McMichael, Mesdames Abial Lathrop, Samuel Dibble, B. H. Moss, Harry Keller and Mr. Paul Cantwell were Wright, S. R. Mellichamp, H. Spahr, married by Rev. D. D. Dantzler and W. W. Wannamaker and Miss Anna

WON'T PARDON JONES.

This is Governor Blease's Present Attitude. The Columbia correspondent of The News and Courier says another petition for pardon of John J. Jones, of Orangeburg County, who was sentenced to ten years and one month for the killing of Abe Pearlstine, at Branchville, was nipped in the bud yesterday that the senders want in by the announcement from Governor Blease that he isn't going to pardon Jones. What may come up later cannot be told at this time, but at present Governor Blease will not act favfrom Edgefield. The forerunner of a second petition from Orangeburg was the presence in the city of two of counsel interested in the case. Governor Blease was not in the office when the Gov-Miss Leila Marchant entertained ernor was approached on the subject After the regular business session a glad to hear counsel, but he has de-from Orangeburg. The presence of counsel here led The News and Courier correspondent The annual meeting of The Peo- to ask Governor Blease this afternoon will be made an example of by His ple's Bank was held at the office of about the John Jones case, and Govthe bank on the afternoon of April ernor Blease stated the circumstances will be eventually caught is vertain, 4th. The president's report showed and said that he would not at this and then woe unto him. that the business for the past year time extend Executive elemency for had been entirely satisfactory, and the same reason as moved him to rethat all the affairs of the bank are fuse the petition that came from angeburgers who are now residents now in good condition. The follow- Edgefield. No papers were filed from of Calhoun County, were in the city ing board of directors was elected Orangeburg. A petition may later on Friday. They are always welcome for the ensuing year: B. F. Muck- be presented for the pardon of Jones, and we wish they would come ofenfuss, W. C. Crum, D. O. Herbert, but it can be authoritatively stated tener.

To Give Afternoon Concerts. by re-electing the same officers who the people of Orangeburg with the parts. The bachelors had better look have served the bank for several tremendous possibilities of the Edi-If the churches in the district are years: D. O. Herbert, president; B. son phonograph as a source of pleasrepresented fully there will be in the F. Muckenfuss, vice president; J. W. ure and entertainment, the Marchant neighborhood of one hundred dele- Culler, cashier; Wm. L. Glaze, Jr., Music Co. will commence on Monday gates in attendance on the confer- asst. cashier and F. P. Schiffley, book- afternoon, April 10th, a series of afternon concerts to run ten days and The stockholders of this bank are lasting just one hour. The concerts Orangeburg extends a hearty invi- considering the matter of increasing will begin promptly at 5:30 and close tation to all the delegates to be sure the capital stock to $50,000 at an at 6:30. Everybody is invited to this series of concerts, especially the ladies. There will be no obligation on the part of any one to buy and no one will be solicited to buy anything. The Marchant Music Co. simply desires the public to know more about this division of the Orangeburg Associa- greatest of all reproducing machines, tion to be held with the Willow and are using this method of doing so. All the selections will be made include Grand Opera, Ragtime, Pop-> concert will last one hour only. Fatally Burned.

pieces. Everybody welcome. Each

The Bamberg Times says one of the most horrible deaths ever recorded in this county took place at Olar on Sunday night when the wife of Herbert Kearse died from the burns and in spite of a necessary delay, received from her clothing catching they hope to give their friends truly fire. Mrs. Kearse was standing near the open fireplace, dressing her little 4-months-old infant, when her clothing took fire. She screamed and tried to protect herself with a blanket, but before assistance reached her, she had been burned terribly. Site lost consciousness, but regained control dresses in behalf of the Farmers' of her mental faculties long enough to tell something of how it happened.

Calhoun County Teachers.

The Calhoun County Teachers Assuch towns last year passed these or- versity, has accepted an invitation to Rev. J. W. Oxne and Dr. R. C. Hol-

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

PICKED UP ALL OVER TOWN BY OUR REPORTERS.

What Is Happening Here and There. Local Items of Personal Interest to

The race for Judge of Probate was pretty close. Friday was decidedly summerish. A few more days like it, and straw hats may make their appearance. Dump all garbage from your back yards on Monday on the streets, the city carts will remove it promptly.

If everybody will do their part Orangeburg will be cleaner and sweeter and healthier this summer. Get rid of all tin cans and decaying natter of every description, and that will help to get rid of flies and mos-

One of the great needs of the Orangeburg school system is a high school in its own building and taught by men.

Go down this morning to the Southern depot and see what a handsome set of gentlemen the Charleston

On next Friday afternoon and night at the Theato a benefit will be given to one of the committees for the Dixie Library. Here is hoping that the farmers will have the best crops they have ever had this year, and that prices for everything will be good. An exchange says, "when people complain of ennui they merely confess that they are tired of resting, and are too lazy to do anything."

The Saturday Evening Post and The Ladies Home Journal is on sale every week and every month at Sims Book Store. Also fashion magazines. It is predicted that E. B. Friday, Esq., will be in the race for the House next year. If he does he will be elected or come mighty close to be-Mr. Vernon Brantley has returned to his home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Brantley and daughter Frances will remain in the city a few more Don't forget that Monday, April 10th, is cleaning up day all over

South Carolina. Civic pride in Or-angeburg ought to induce us to join heartily in this movement. Our law brief department is rushed. We received a large brief a hury. They will get it unless some unforesen thing happens. The Times and Democrat law brief department finished up a brief last week, and is putting the finishing orably in the matter. He refused a touches to another. We find this a petition for the pardon of Jones a very profitable branch of our busifew days ago. This petition came ness.

An exchange says: "It's hard to sit still and think when the home team is practicing a block away and getting ready to open the season." As we have no home team we are all Mr. L. S. Wolfe is the Society Reporter for The Times and Democrat, and we will appreciate any favors shown him. He wants to make that one of the most interest columns in bargains in the paper. If the party who is sending in the false fire alarms is caught he

Messrs. G. W. Stables. V. V. Saylor and W. W. Staley, all good old Or-

Learning that Orangeburg, S. C., was a good town and that husbands Only 6 to one custocould be secured from the large list of eligibles, the Peake Sisters of For the purpose of familiarizing Alaska are on their way to these out for their scalps. As yet there has benn no move taken in this city to have the Sunday delivery at the postoffice discontinued. A large amount of mail is delivered here on Sundays, both R. from the general delivery window and carriers' window.

Sims Book Store will receive another large shipment of Popular Dear Friend: Priced Copyrights in the next few days. Your favorite title or the one you want may be in that lot. Possible it would be well to leave word was nice oranges. Papa used to to have it laid aside for you.

There will be a basket picnic at Antioch Baptist church, near Elloree, was sour but now I smile when I in advance of the concerts and will on Good Friday, which comes on April 14. Refreshments will be sold ular songs, Orchestra and Band for the benefit of the improvement of now is sweet. You ought to eat the cemetery. The public are cordially invited to attend with wellfilled baskets.

> Owing to a complication of circumstances, the ladies of the Choral Club have decided to postpone their concert until early in May. They are much encouraged with the outlook, a May Festival.

There will be an Easter picnic at fruits at East Orange school house Saturday, April 15th. Dr. S. J. Summers, Prof. B. F. Keller, W. S. Barton, Jr., and Capt. J. H. Claffy will make ad-Union. Refreshments will be served for benefit of the school. The public is cordially invited to come and bring In the Lutheran church next week.

and they are to be chosen hereafter by popular election.

Solution is a great institution," said Mr. Of this amount Orangeburg is entitled by popular election.

Brown, "and the road is fine."

Solution receipts are $10,000. Sender improvement and reachers and the services Easter Sunday, the congregation and friends are corbat popular election.

The congregation and friends are corbat popular election.

Solution receipts are $10,000. Sender improvement and reachers and the services Easter Sunday, the congregation and friends are corbat popular election.

The congregation is a great institution," said Mr. Of this amount Orangeburg is entitled as a great institution and friends are corbat popular election.

The McKay Famous Steel Roller Bearing Sulky

Stalk Cutter

Acknowledged by the leading planters and dealers to be the best by test.

PLEASE READ

EVERY WORD

CAREFULLY Made entirely of teel and ron, except Tongue and Trees. Its design and mechanical construction is perfect. No wabbling or "rattle trap trinkets" to be getting out of order. It is simple and condensed, being made of extra heavy bars has great strength and rigidity. Although this machine weighs more than 500 lbs., with our improved Cylinder Boxes and teel Roller Bearings, it draws about 100 lbs., lighter than others, and is very easy to operate. Every machine is carefully inspected before leaving our factory at Dunn, N. C.

THE McKAY STALK CUTTER has won highest prize at every Fair where we have exhibited it, in competition with all other well known Stalk Cutters.

McNAMARA

$\doldright\rangle \doldright\rangle \doldright\

See our window dis-

Oh say, let me tell you what we had for breakfast this morning. It not like oranges and I would pucker up my face because my orange eat my orange because my orange oranges or some kind of fruit at your house because they are healthy. They cost only 30c per Grape Fruit, Lemons, Apples and Bananas.

Your Friend, JACOB. P. S .-- you get good fresh sweet

For the Best Stationary

PURE FOOD STORE

---GO TO---

Sims Book Store - Orangeburg, S. C.